

Spurrier and Nellie M. Spurrier, his wife, all of whom are adults and reside in Frederick County, Maryland.

The children and heirs at law of a brother, William M. L. Spurrier, whose wife is dead, both of whom predeceased the said Theresa A. M. Spurrier and Sadie E. Spurrier, intestate, to-wit: A son, an adult, Charles O. Spurrier, whose wife's name (if any) I do not know, whose residence is unknown, but when last heard from lived somewhere in the Western part of the United States of America; a daughter, Coral Spurrier Kling, whose husband's name is Roscoe M. Kling, both of whom are adults residing in Frederick County, Maryland; a son, Samuel E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Poella Spurrier, both of whom are adults and reside in Denver, Colorado; a son, Royal E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ruth D. Spurrier, both of whom are adults and reside in Fort Wayne, Indiana; a son, Walter E. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ella S. Spurrier, both of whom are adults and reside in Hartland, Minnesota; a son, Alfred R. Spurrier, whose wife's name is Ethel Spurrier, both of whom are adults residing in Coesse, Indiana; a son, Emmet C. Spurrier, who is unmarried, an adult, residing in Coesse, Indiana.

I know personally all the parties to this cause, as I have stated, except Uncle William M. L. Spurrier's children I do not know them all, but those enumerated in the testimony of Coral Spurrier Kling are correct as far as I know.

Q Can this property be divided among these parties entitled to interests therein without loss and injury to their interests?

A No, sir, because, as I have stated, it consists of one tract of land of $2\frac{1}{2}$ acres, and the improvements set practically in the middle of it along the State Road and consist of one big stone house and a small house, a tool house and some other small outbuildings, and there is a well of water. It just couldn't be
